

The Bible in a Year

Greetings Bible Readers!

John 1:14 says "...the Word became flesh and lived among us" (NRSV). Jesus is the Word that comes and lives with us. It is my prayer that as we read the Bible, Jesus would come.

If you start this reading plan it will take you 365 days to complete. The first day is labeled "Day 1" so you can begin any day. Today, in fact, is a great day to read the Bible! The rest of the days are similarly named. If you miss a day (or days!) of reading, don't worry about packing in multiple days' reading into one. Just pick up with the next day. In this manner, it may take longer than a year to read through the Bible, but if you stick with it, you will spend 365 days in the scriptures.

This reading schedule follows this pattern:

- 4 chapters of Bible reading each day.
- 2 of those chapters are reading through the Bible beginning in Genesis.
- 1 of those chapters will be a psalm, poetry, wisdom, or instructional. Songs and wisdom can be wonderful ways to engage or faith or consider how we will live in light of God's grace.
- 1 of those chapters will be from the Gospels of Mark, Matthew, Luke, and John, or come from the book of Acts. This cycle of readings will repeat about 3 times through the year. As Gospel ("good news") people, I think it can be good to spend extra time in the stories of Jesus regularly.

Since 2017 Bishop Sharma Lewis has been encouraging the Virginia Conference to read the Bible each year. Bishop Lewis has given some great challenges you could try or do again:

2017—read the Bible straight through.

2018—read the Bible chronologically.

2019—a blended mix of Old and New Testaments each day.

2020—a course of 21-day reading plans throughout the year that included study and reflection.

2021—read the Bible straight through.

2022—The One Year Bible Reading Plan

In 2020 I introduced a 90 Day Bible Challenge for Keezletown United Methodist Church that was a lot of daily reading to complete the whole Bible in 90 days. My favorite way to use that is to do sections of the Bible in 90 days like the four Gospels or reading through Psalms and Proverbs.

Before digging into God's Word, read through the following sections first and return to them as often as you need:

1. Tips on reading the Bible daily.
2. Two hymns by Charles Wesley to get you started.

Go read some Scripture and then live it in the grace of Jesus,

Tips on reading the Bible daily:

- Start reading the Bible today. If you get discouraged by reading, perhaps listening to an audio Bible would better for you. There are many free audible Bibles available online and in apps.
- Set aside a specific time and place each day. Set your schedule and then stick to it. Mornings are great; but feel free to use any time that works consistently with your schedule. You may find it helpful to divide readings into multiple parts of the day such as morning and evening.
- Get a good study Bible to help to illuminate the meaning of the original Hebrew, Aramaic, and Greek text.
- Choose a translation you can understand and enjoy. It is very difficult to read through the Bible if you are frustrated with a translation that is not working well for you.
- Say a short prayer to God before you begin, asking the Holy Spirit to give you wisdom and understanding.
- Begin with "Day 1". If you miss a day don't get discouraged. Pick up with the next day in challenge!

Two hymns by Charles Wesley to get you started:

"Whether the Word Be Preached or Read" by Charles Wesley, 1783

Whether the Word be preached or read, no saving benefit I gain from empty sounds or letters dead; unprofitable all and vain, unless by faith thy word I hear and see its heavenly character.

Unmixed with faith, the Scripture gives no comfort, life, or light to see,
but me in darker darkness leaves, implunged in deeper misery,
overwhelmed with nature's sorest ills.
The Spirit saves, the letter kills.

If God enlighten through his Word,
I shall my kind Enlightener bless;
but void and naked of my Lord, what are all verbal promises?
Nothing to me, till faith divine inspire, inspeak, and make them mine.

Jesus, the appropriating grace 'tis thine on sinners to bestow.
Open mine eyes to see thy face, open my heart thyself to know.
And then I through thy Word obtain sure present, and eternal gain.

"Come, Divine Interpreter" by Charles Wesley, 1762

Come, divine Interpreter, bring me eyes thy book to read, ears the mystic words to hear, words which did from thee proceed, words that endless bliss impart, kept in an obedient heart.

All who read, or hear, are blessed, if thy plain commands we do;
of thy kingdom here possessed, thee we shall in glory view when thou comest on earth to abide, reign triumphant at thy side.
