A Prayer from John Wesley’s A Collection of Forms of Prayer for Every Day of the Week, 1733 (Tuesday Morning Prayer)

O God, the giver of all good gifts, thank you for giving me this day in which to renew my commitment to walk in your ways. Help me perceive the ways in which I may improve my obedience this day. Be present at all times, in every task, in whatever company I will keep this day; let your love be my compass throughout today’s journey.

You have made all people in your own image, and each person is capable of knowing and loving you. Do not permit me to exclude any person from my loving care, but let me treat each person with that tender love and respect that is due all your children. You have commanded me to show love to others as proof of my love for you. Let no person’s words or actions tempt me away from giving you the service you command; rather, let me love for your sake even those who are unkind and hostile to me.

Open my eyes to see the opportunities you will give me to help those in any kind of need. Make me diligent and bold to provide for the hungry and homeless, comfort the disheartened, and protect the oppressed. Grant me the wisdom and courage to teach those who are unmindful of you, strengthen the weak in faith, encourage my sisters and brothers, and warn the wicked, always with gentleness and compassion. Move me to pray for those whom I cannot reach directly with my service.

Let your love for me, blessed Savior, be the pattern for my love for others. You gave your life for my salvation. Let no possession be so important to me that I am not willing to give it up for the everlasting good of my fellow Christians. They are members of your body; therefore, I will cherish them.

Extend your mercy to all people, and let them become your faithful servants. Let all Christians live up to the holy name that they profess. You established the worth of all humans by giving your precious blood for them. Set the value you place on each person I shall meet today firmly before my eyes, and let me love as you have loved.

Spend time in silence

Prayer for others and yourself

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Share the Love of Jesus because It's All about Relationships

How will you or how did you share the love of Jesus with neighbor today with no strings attached?

A Prayer for Evening: Mary's Song from Luke 1:46-55

A Prayer for Bedtime: Simeon's Song from Luke 2:29-32

A Collect from The Book of Common Prayer, 1979

Gracious Father, whose blessed Son Jesus Christ came down from heaven to be the true bread which gives life to the world: Evermore give us this bread, that he may live in us, and we in him; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.
